COME HOLY SPIRIT COME!

One Saturday night a minister was busy writing his sermon for Sunday. His little daughter saw him working busily and asked him what he was doing. He said he was writing his sermon. She asked, "Daddy, how do you know what to write?" He answered, "God tells me what to write." Then she asked, "Why do you keep erasing?"

Sometimes it's very clear and sometimes it's challenging to know what God is saying to us. I have felt this way many times as a pastor. I think of the Discernment Team and how we have talked about changes in Mass times, or how I have taught this year and preached.

There is plenty of need for the eraser! But Jesus makes a promise that God the Father, "will take from what is mine and declare it to you." Therefore, through ourselves as the community of faith, the Holy Spirit will be the one to fulfill God's plan and work. This is Jesus' promise! With the same Discernment Team, we are off to a great start with the commissions that we have formed, the goals for each, and the action steps. We have had great discussion that has brought us together. Now we look forward to our Eucharistic procession in which many people have stepped up to offer their gift in order to make the day a beautiful and well-planned one for our community.

We must continue to believe that the plans of God will be accomplished! In our gospel for this Pentecost Sunday (in the first option) the disciples huddled in fear behind tightly shut doors. But the risen Lord stood there and spoke into their fear: "Peace be with you." They began to cast off their fear and the Lord sent them out. That is why he breathed on them, so that his Spirit may be in them. I wonder sometimes what fears we will need to cast off in order to let the Holy Spirit work with power.

The Holy Spirit for the disciples enabled them to proclaim God's mighty deeds with his power, beginning with Peter speaking to over 3,000 who were baptized. They lived in unity, as those who believed radically, abiding in Jesus and sharing everything. And now, 2,000 years later, we believe because of their witness and because of God's faithfulness and the power of the Holy Spirit who leads and guides us. He is a Spirit of love, peace, joy, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control, which people of all languages can hear and understand. So let us approach this time of Pentecost begging the Father to send a new outpouring of the Spirit upon our community. Come, Holy Spirit, come! Enkindle in our hearts the fire of your love! God bless you all!

Father Tony

Forgiveness is something that brings up many different emotions for those who have been harmed through clergy or non-clergy sexual abuse. In this presentation we will attempt to define forgiveness and discuss the act of forgiving as done by an injured party to an offender. Hopefully we will come to understand that damaged parties can be further injured by misplaced guilt and shame. It is most often true that victims need to be healed rather than be granted forgiveness.
