3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus said to them in reply,
"Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent,
you will all perish as they did!" - Lk 13:2-3

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

Peter, James, and John wanted to build a 'booth' for Jesus and just stay on the mountain where His transfiguration took place. But the Song of God, the Chosen One, knew that He must instead keep moving toward His crucifixion. We, too, must rise from worship and do what we can to hasten the coming of the kingdom.

AN EXAMPLE OF THE NEED FOR CONGRESSIONAL IMMIGRATION REFORM

As you have seen in the headlines on news programs and with our current political state of affairs these days, immigration into our country is a very important issue. While a country has a right to regulate its borders and should do so for many reasons, our immigration system is badly in need of reform – something that our bishops have called upon Congress to enact for decades now. As an example of this need, I reprint a summary of the situation from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops of those who have arrived in our country as children without legal status as citizens.

“It is estimated that the number of undocumented persons living in the United States who came to the country as children exceeds three million. For a majority of these Dreamers, the United States is the only country they have ever known, and they are now woven into the fabric of our society. Dreamers are an integral part of our economy and our communities—they are business owners, pastors, essential workers, veterans, taxpayers, and members of American families. Nevertheless, this population lives in uncertainty, facing the constant threat of policy changes, deportation, and upheaval of their families.”

“In 2012, the Department of Homeland Security created the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program. DACA is available to Dreamers who arrived in the United States prior to their 16th birthday, have maintained continuous presence in the country since June 15, 2007, and have not engaged in certain criminal activity. While DACA does not provide a pathway to citizenship, beneficiaries of the program are granted a temporary form of protection from deportation and work authorization. To date, over 800,000 people have benefited from DACA. However, the program has been challenged for many years and was recently ruled unlawful by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. While current DACA beneficiaries can continue to renew their protection for the time being, no new applications can be processed. It is possible that the U.S. Supreme Court will soon be called upon to review this case and ultimately decide the fate of the program and its beneficiaries.”

“Since 2001, members of Congress have attempted to pass legislation that would provide Dreamers with permanent legal status and a pathway to citizenship. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has long supported bills, such as the DREAM Act, that would provide this population access to permanent legal status. As the 119th Congress moves forward, legislators should protect and support Dreamers, especially DACA beneficiaries and those who are part of mixed-status families. Only Congress is empowered to provide a permanent solution for Dreamers.”

“Additionally, any legislation put forward in the coming months should respect the inviolable dignity of these and other immigrants, taking into consideration their profound contributions to our nation and the well-being of families. With efforts currently underway to advance a reconciliation bill in Congress, it is vital that legislators exclude from this measure changes to existing law that would adversely impact mixed-status families, including limiting eligibility for mixed-status families in such a way that prevents them from accessing the same support as other American families. Our society is only as strong as its families, and that includes those comprised of people with different immigration statuses.”

Learn more about these issues and the USCCB's positions at www.usccb.org/resources/protectingdreamers.pdf and how you can be a voice for reform of the immigration policies of our country.

44TH ANNUAL MN FOODSHARE MARCH CAMPAIGN

March 1st, 2025 to April 6th, 2025
All food and funds proportionally matched!

Now in its 44th year, the Minnesota Food Share statewide campaign brings awareness to the need for food shelves while collecting critical food and funds at a time when inventories are at their lowest following the holidays. This collaborative effort unites organizations, businesses, faith communities, and individuals to support over 300 food shelves across the state.

At Bountiful Basket Food Shelf, we're committed to eliminating food insecurity for the 9,000+ individuals we serve annually. Over the past year, we experienced a 72% increase in individuals served, underscoring the growing need in our community. In response, we expanded our capacity with the opening of a second site in Cologne in 2023 and an off-site pantry at West Creek Apartments in 2024. These milestones, alongside launching additional mobile deliveries, school snack and weekend food programs to our local schools, foster care and immunization food bag initiatives with the county, and more—have resulted in a remarkable 226% increase in individuals served since 2022.

This growth is part of a larger trend across Minnesota, where food insecurity is rising at unprecedented rates. Feeding America reports that 537,890 Minnesotans, including 34% under age 10, are facing hunger. In 2024, Minnesotans made a record-breaking 9 million visits to food shelves, a 20% increase from the previous record of 7.5 million in 2023 and 150% higher than pre-pandemic levels. The state's charitable food system, including food shelves like Bountiful Basket, is operating at capacity as families struggle with rising food prices, inflation, and stagnant wage growth. While statewide efforts have made strides in combating hunger, the demand for emergency food assistance continues to grow.

With your support, Bountiful Basket Food Shelf remains determined to meet these challenges and needs head-on. Together, we can ensure that everyone who walks through our doors feels welcomed, supported, and empowered to address their food needs. Thank you for being part of this critical mission.
