OUR LORD'S DIVINE MERCY

Happy Easter everyone! I wish you and your families a grace-filled day that brings your family together by His love which has conquered all sin and death. This Sunday, the second Sunday of Easter, was declared Divine Mercy Sunday by Saint John Paul II on April 30th, 2000 at the canonization of Sister Faustina Kowalska. The last text prepared by Saint John Paul II, read after his death, teaches us about the great gift of Divine Mercy. He writes, "Today the glorious Alleluia of Easter resounds. Today's Gospel from John emphasizes that on the evening of that day he appeared to the Apostles and 'showed them his hands and his side' (Jn 20:20), that is, the sign of the painful passion with which his Body was indelibly stamped, even after the Resurrection. Those glorious wounds, which he allowed doubting Thomas to touch eight days later, reveal the mercy of God who 'so loved the world that he gave his only Son' (Jn 3:16). ...Lord, who reveals the Father's love by your death and Resurrection, we believe in you and confidently repeat to you today: Jesus, I trust in you, have mercy upon us and upon the whole world."

Mercy, which we are completely dependent on, is a hallmark of our Catholic faith. When we walk into a Catholic Church, we see a crucifix that powerfully reminds us of and places at front and center our Lord's redeeming mercy upon the whole world. In fact, our beloved and late pope called mercy love's second name. The corporal and spiritual works of mercy flow from divine mercy itself revealed so vividly to Thomas. In the Good Samaritan parable, Jesus answers a man's question, "Who is my neighbor?" by showing that the neighbor is one who shows mercy. In the Last Judgment of Matthew 25 the sheep that are saved are the ones who did works of mercy – feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, welcoming the stranger, clothing the naked, visiting the sick, visiting the imprisoned, and burying the dead. These would be later called the Corporal Works of Mercy. And the account that Jesus gives of the Last Judgment reveals to us that when they are done to the least brothers and sisters they are done to Jesus.

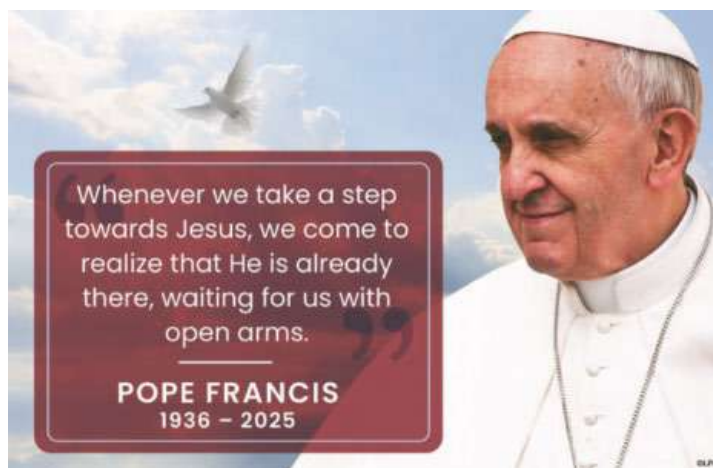

This year's celebration of Divine Mercy is extraordinary because our late and beloved Pope Francis was also a great champion of mercy who gave us a beautiful example. On Holy Thursday, each year, he would go to a prison and wash the feet of the inmates. He emphasized the inclusion of all kinds of people and had a great love for the poor. He wanted his Church to be a listening Church that was well-informed as to what people are thinking and what their true pastoral needs are as it would go forth and proclaim the joy of the gospel. In Pope Francis' homilies, he often emphasized a need to awaken from indifference to the needs of others and to approach others as being alive with hope, ready to offer the mercy of compassion.

I encourage you to pray the novena of Divine Mercy which began on Good Friday (you can begin now and catch up). I encourage you to attend our Divine Mercy celebration at 3:00 PM today, Sunday, April 27th. It will consist of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, recitation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, and Litanies and Prayers to the Divine Mercy, and adoration of the image of the Divine Mercy. Blessings to you and your family on this octave day of our Lord's Resurrection!

A MESSAGE FROM THE FRANCISCAN RETREATS AND SPIRITUALITY CENTER

The Franciscan friars and all the staff here join the world in our grief over the passing of the Holy Father and also share with gratitude the gift Pope Francis was to all God's people. He was humble enough to choose the name Francis, and then lived up to it. As St. Francis of Assisi would have said, "He did what was his to do." Amen, alleluia!
